Acts 4:32-37

Introduction

2000 years after the writing of this book the message is still for us. When the Holy Spirit comes, he moves us to boldly testifying about the life giving resurrection, and allows us to validate it in our community through gracious acts of compassion.

- II. No Ordinary _____ v33-35

- III. No Ordinary _____ v36-37

Going Deeper

1. What does it mean to be one heart and one mind with the believers?

2. According to Isaiah 1:17 and Jeremiah 22:3, who does God expect us to care for in our compassion ministries?

3. What is the central message of the cross? (Acts 4:34; II Tim 2:8)

4. What are the subtle differences between doing things to 'impress' God rather than 'reflecting' God's work?

5. How was bold proclamation related to acts of compassion in these verses?

6. Who in your life takes the role of Barnabus and who do you need to be Barnabus for?

7. What do you need to act upon in the areas of Bold Proclamation and Gracious Compassion?
